

Trust Map

What are your trust levels at work?

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
mistrust	trust a little		good level			trust a lot		total trust

- Choose up to 8 people you work with.
- Write each person's name in one of the circles.
- On the blue line write the number from 1 – 10 that represents your level of trust in that person.
- On the dotted line write the number from 1 -10 that you believe represents that person's level of trust in you.
- In brackets, after each number, write what number you'd like to see there.

- What would be different at work if the numbers in the brackets, representing the levels of trust, became your reality?
